

Miss Me But Let Me Go

Unknown Author

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free!

Miss me a little – but not for long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me, but let me go.

For this journey that we all must take
And each must go alone;
It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me, but let me go.

In Loving Memory

Janet Lee Evans

Janet Lee Evans passed away at Kirksville Manor Care Center on Saturday, October 17, 2020.

She was born in Columbia, MO on June 22, 1966, the beloved daughter of Earl Evans, Jr., and Anna Virginia (Helmka) Evans.

Janet was preceded in death by her maternal and paternal grandparents, parents, brother Maurice Evans, and her brother-in-law, George Graces.

Surviving her are sisters Gale Graces of Denville, NJ, Karen Thomas (Carroll) of Green Castle, MO., brother Paul Evans (Cathy) of Blue Springs, MO., and several much loved nieces and nephews.

Janet attended University of MO - Columbia and Truman University. She was a pharmacy technician until her retirement due to ill health.

She never met a book that she didn't want to read and held a very wide range of knowledge. She was a writer, particularly of poetry and songs. She loved music and had a great collection of her favorite rock band, The Cars. She was also an astute shopper, always on the lookout for a bargain and never failed to find a treasure at a flea market. She had a kind and generous spirit and was a lover of animals and nature.

It was Janet's wish for a simple eco-friendly cremation with a private service for the family at a later date.
